BACHELOR OF LAWS

We aim at training excellent lawyers; critical thinkers who are able to grasp a better understanding of justice. Our curriculum merges core subjects in legal theory and practice with courses on ethics and humanities making the student an agent of change in East Africa and beyond. We are determined to achieve legal excellence in the quest for justice.

"I accepted an offer to study an LLM in International Commercial Law in the University of Bristol. I did not realise how well the Strathmore Law School had prepared me. For me to join an international institution and not feel intimidated or feel like it was different to what I was used to. I thank Strathmore Law School for the great exposure and instilling in me the confidence I have today."
